

I do not think it is appropriate to allow the LPFM stations to displace national or regional translators. I listen to Klove radio and it provides me with a decent alternative to the mainstream music/programming that is available on most local stations. I find most of the programming on local stations to be politically biased and often offensive. KLOVE has provided the community of Oklahoma City and the surrounding area a positive and encouraging alternative to a largely Christian populace. This helps many of its listeners to focus on the better things in life. It helps us to maintain a peaceful and self-controlled perspective in an otherwise insane world. I think it is a mistake to arbitrarily allow the LPFMs to displace national and Regional stations.
